There was a small strike on the Walpahu plantation last Tuesday when a band of about forty Portuguese objected to the way a new luna was bossing the job. According to the men the luna seemed to be of the idea that he was bossing a herd of cattle and the men would not stand for such work from anybody, so, after a protest they started to leave the field. This riled up the luna and he rode into the crowd of men and seriously injured a couple of them. The men took their case to the manager and arrangements were made so that the men went back to work. The injured man however swore out a warrant for the luna and his case was tried in the district court at Pearl City which resulted in a suspended sentence for the accused.
